September 6, Saturday "Wool-A-Roc" Picnic & Drive: This drive will be a great top down adventure with beautiful vistas of both Skiatook and Keystone lakes and the Osage reservation as we travel to Woolaroc. A special group discount of $4 per person has been negotiated and time will be allowed to visit the museum, the gun collection, the Lodge and/or stroll the grounds. Lunch will be casual; beautiful (indoor and outdoor) picnic areas are available. Sharon and I plan to pack a picnic lunch. For those who decide not to "picnic", a walk up snack bar is available featuring sandwiches, snacks, drinks, etc. Buffalo burgers are a specialty. The day will begin with a drivers meeting at Braums (N of Hwy 412 at Gilcrease road) with departure at 9:00am sharp. We plan to return about 3:30pm. The drive should be of interest to those who "love the drive" and those who want a "great destination". The pace will allow enjoyment of the scenery. We hope to have a great turnout for the first NEO Miata fall event. Questions: Pierre and Sharon Smith (495-3988) or pierresmith1@cox.net.
