PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: CONNIE MOTT

Let Bill and Sonja know if you are attending the sit-down, gourmet meal on March 10 at the OSU Culinary School. Yum Yum!

Then, I am so looking forward to a long drive and a few nights out of town, and great food with my friends on the "Searching for Blue Bonnets" drive. If you want to go, better get busy for your reservations.

We are beginning to fill in our calendar with Events, Drives, and Meet & Eats. If you have an idea for a drive and/or place to eat, be sure to let Renee Pigg know so she can get it on our calendar of events. Our March meeting is at Oklahoma Joe's on March 17, Saint Patrick's Day. Wear something green! Come early to eat and socialize with the meeting starting at 6:30 pm.

Received my vanity plate, "MY WNGS" Zoom Zoom!

PREVIOUS MEETING MINUTES: LEE CODY

The meeting was called to order at OK. Joe's BBQ at 6:30 pm. By Club President, Connie Mott. Approximately 20 members were present. Connie asked us to remember the families of members who have recently deceased, Lee Kimberlin and Mac Young. We had a moment of silence for them. Connie announced 3 birthdays and 1 anniversary for the month of February. Refreshments were brought by Ann Hill. Thank you, Ann. They were delicious!

OFFICER REPORTS:

V.P., Tom Mattox, passed out new business cards and a letter to take to businesses when asking for donations of items for door prizes.

Sec., Lee Cody, asked if there were any changes or additions to the Jan. minutes. There were none. I also asked for people to fill the dessert list. It is now done. Thank you to everyone who has signed up!

Treas., John Hill, reported that we currently have $1,992.32 in the checking account and $390.42 in the savings account, for a total of $2,382.74. We have 44 paid members. John also talked to Jennifer Knight at Nelson Mazda and thanked them for all of their help.

Memb., Kim Brownell said she will update the membership list soon and get it sent out.

W.M., Alan Doughty – No report

Event Coord., Renee Pigg – Not present
