PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: MIKE CODY

Hope everyone is doing well. Renee Pigg is healing well as is Martin Bebb. Seems the older we get the more surgeries our members are having. My wife Lee has had two in the past month and is doing well also. The main thing in life is to get up and keep going, can't just sit down and give up.

On a good note we had 3 new memberships and 4 cars added to the club. Welcome to the club Jim Price, Patty and Lynn Johnson, Larry and Joyce Powell. Patty and Lynn both bought a new Miata! Congratulations to all new members, you are in for a great time with great folks.

We had a great to Polo Dura Canyon and the Alabaster Caverns this last month, we had five cars and nine people go on the 4 day trip. The photos are posted on the website. We also had a breakfast at Eggberts in Claremore, great food and service, but the fellowship was the best!

October monthly meeting was well attended with 46 or 47 people. The 50/50 was a whopping $142 where Dianne Milberger won $71, congratulations Dianne!

Our next Breakfast will be at JAKE'S CAFÉ in Broken Arrow located at 626 S. Aspen Ave. 9:00am.

Don't forget the Veterans Day Parades in Skiatook on Nov. 9th and Tulsa Nov. 11th. Candy can be thrown in Skiatook, but NOT Tulsa. We are planning a drive after the Skiatook Parade to Pawhuska led by Regina and Darryl Jones. After the Tulsa Parade we will meet to eat at Hideaway Pizza located at 61st and Yale.

Lee and I are planning an Amish Dinner on November 23rd for a meet and eat. The address and map will be in the calendar. Lee and I will meet whoever needs help getting there, at Loves in Chouteau on Hwy 69 at 5:00 leaving shortly after arriving at the Millers 5:30 pm. Lee is taking RSVP, please call her at 918-808-8544 to schedule. Price is $20 per person for adults, $15 for 6-12 yrs. and $10 for 5 and under. Please pay at next meeting, price includes tax and tip. One thing I forgot to mention at the meeting, if you have family or good friends that wants to come with you that is ok. Just be sure Lee has the proper count, space is somewhat limited so get it in as soon as you know. I believe she can seat at least 50.

If you have never eaten here, you are in for real treat! Family style setting, take food out and pass the bowl or plate. Chicken, Ham, Mashed potatoes, Gravy, green beans, chicken noodles, dressing, coleslaw, real butter, apple butter and homemade rolls. Pies for desert will be Cherry and Coconut Cream; drinks will be Tea, Water and Coffee.

Thanks for being a GREAT CLUB,
